Using a set of open questions which can be used to facilitate dialogues

For example:

1. What questions come into your head?	19. Do you disagree?
2. What do you think?	20. Why do you think that?
3. What else do you think?	21. Why did they think that?
4. What does that mean to you?	22. Where did that idea come from?
5. What would you do if you were…?	23. What could that mean?
6. What would happen if…?	24. What may happen next?
7. Why do you say that?	25. How sure are you that that is the right answer?
8. Do you agree?
9. What does that mean?	26. What is your solution to…?
10. What would that lead to?	27. How might others see this?
11. Where did that thought come from?	28. Is that your best answer or your first answer?
12. Guess!?
13. What could an answer be?	29. What could this mean?
14. How would you solve the problem?	30. How does this link with that…?
15. What do you think it means?	31. When might that not be true?
16. What do you feel is right?	32. Where might that not be true?
17. Who do you feel is right?	33. Have another guess?
18. If you did know the answer, what would it be?	34. What if the opposite were true…?
	35. Could the opposite be true?
	36. I disagree with you - persuade me!
